Re: Case Identifier: CGB-CC-0258
CG Docket No. 06-181
Petition for Closed Captioning Exemption
Dismissal of Petition

Dear Mr. Digby:

This letter concerns your Petition for exemption from the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC's) closed captioning requirements.¹ The FCC's Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) advises you that, for the reasons stated below, your Petition is dismissed as incomplete and you must begin providing closed captioning for the programming that is the subject of your Petition within 90 days of the date of this letter, or by September 2, 2014. For your convenience, enclosed is a copy of the Public Notice announcing the dismissal of your Petition. As explained further below, your Petition is dismissed without prejudice and you may file a new petition for exemption.

The programming that is the subject of your Petition has been exempt from the FCC's closed captioning requirements since your Petition was first filed.² On October 5, 2012, the Bureau placed your petition on public notice for comment.³ After reviewing the comments received in response to your Petition and similar petitions, the Bureau determined that it required additional and updated information to enable it to determine whether your programming should be exempt from the FCC's closed captioning requirements because captioning such programming would be economically burdensome to your organization. Accordingly, on September 27, 2013, the Bureau sent you a letter requesting additional and updated information regarding your Petition. The letter stated that, unless you submitted the required information and materials outlined in the Bureau's letter by October 28, 2013, the Bureau would dismiss your Petition. On October 18, 2013, you were granted an extension to November 12, 2013 to submit the required information and materials.

On November 12, 2013, you submitted some but not all of the additional and updated information requested by the Bureau's letter. Specifically, you did not satisfy the following requirements.

- The nature and cost of the closed captions for the programming. Information about your organization's costs associated with closed captioning each specific program for which you are requesting an exemption, and your efforts to find companies that can provide captioning at a reasonable cost.

² 47 C.F.R. § 79.1(f)(11).

³ Request for Comment: Request for Exemption from Commission's Closed Captioning Rules, Public Notice, DA 12-1601, 27 FCC Rcd 12201 (2012).

- Documentation for two or more recent quotes you received from closed captioning services to provide closed captioning specifically for each program. "Recent" means a quote you obtained not earlier than one year prior to the Bureau's September 27, 2013 letter.

You did not satisfy this requirement. You provided information from four closed captioning service providers, but only one, from WTVB, contained a quote to provide closed captioning specifically for your program. That quote, however, was not recent.

- For each of the quotes for which you provide documentation, an estimate of your annual cost to caption your program(s). For example, multiply the cost to caption each of your program episodes by the number of program episodes to be produced in one year.

You did not satisfy this requirement. You did not provide estimates of your annual cost to caption your program based on two or more recent quotes for which you provided documentation.

- Your financial resources.

- Information about all income and all expenses for your organization, as follows:

- A statement of all income (cash receipts) and all expenses (cash disbursements) for the two most recent completed calendar or fiscal years. Cash receipts include money received from all sources for your entire organization, not just the video program(s). Cash disbursements include money paid for purchases, expenses, and settlement of obligations throughout the year for your entire organization, not just the video program(s). List, describe, and provide the dollar amount for each type of cash receipt and cash disbursement for the two most recent completed calendar or fiscal years. Cash receipts and cash disbursements may each be subtotaled. You must provide a total net dollar amount (sometimes called a surplus or deficit, or profit or loss) for all cash receipts and all cash disbursements.

You did not satisfy this requirement. You provided only a bank statement for May 2013 in your most recent submission. Your previous filing provided only a bank statement from October 4 - November 3, 2011 and an invoice from WTVB for one month of programming. These documents do not satisfy this requirement because they do not provide information on your income and expenses, as described above, and do not cover the requisite two years.

- Audited financial statements or an accountant's compilation of financial statements for the two most recent completed calendar or fiscal years. If such statements are not available, provide complete federal income tax returns, including all attachments, for your organization for the two most recent completed calendar or fiscal years. If your organization is a sole proprietorship, provide personal tax returns for the two most recent completed calendar or fiscal years. Redact (black out) sensitive information, such as account numbers and social security numbers, before submitting personal tax returns or other documentation.

You did not satisfy this requirement. You did not provide any audited financial statements, accountant's compilation, or federal income tax returns (or tax-exempt information returns) for the requisite two years.

- Information about the current assets and current liabilities of your overall organization, as follows:
 - A statement of all current assets and current liabilities of the overall organization as of the last day of the two most recent completed calendar or fiscal years. List, describe, and provide the dollar amount for each type of current asset and current liability so listed. This requirement may be satisfied by providing complete balance sheets as of the last days of the two most recent completed calendar or fiscal years.

The documents you provided do not satisfy this requirement. Neither bank statement shows current assets or current liabilities as of the last day of the two most recent completed calendar or fiscal years.

- Current assets are any asset (or resource) as of the last day of the calendar or fiscal year that can be converted into cash within the following year.
 - Examples of current assets for an individual or sole proprietor: cash; checking accounts; savings accounts; investment accounts including money market accounts; certificates of deposit and bonds that will mature within one year; stocks; and trust/endowment account amounts available for that year.
 - Examples of current assets for a corporation: cash; accounts receivable; inventory; marketable securities; and prepaid expenses.
- Current liabilities are obligations (or debts) as of the last day of the calendar or fiscal year that must be paid within the following year.
 - Examples of current liabilities for an individual or sole proprietor: any loans (principal and interest) and mortgage payments (principal, interest, taxes, and insurance) due to be paid within one year; the balance of any credit cards as of the last day of the year; and unpaid bills as of the last day of the year (utility bills, and medical bills).
 - Examples of current liabilities for a corporation: accounts payable; accrued liabilities; notes payable; current portion of long-term debt; and taxes payable.
- Affidavit or declaration. A detailed, full showing supported by a signed affidavit or declaration attesting to the truthfulness and accuracy of the information and representations contained in your submission. An affidavit is a written statement made under oath, before an official who is authorized to administer oaths, such as a notary public or county clerk. A declaration is a written statement made under penalty of perjury, such as "I declare under penalty of perjury that the information contained in this submission is true and correct." (See 47 C.F.R. § 1.16.)

You did not satisfy this requirement. You did not provide the required affidavit or declaration.

Accordingly, your Petition is dismissed as incomplete. You must begin providing closed captioning for the programming that was the subject of your Petition within 90 days of the date of this letter, or by September 2, 2014.

Because your Petition is dismissed without prejudice, you may file a new petition for exemption from the FCC's closed captioning requirements. If you file a new petition, the programming that is the subject of the new petition will again be exempt from the FCC's closed captioning requirements while the new petition is pending. The Bureau will assign a new case identifier number to any new petition that you file. For more information about filing a new petition, including instructions for new electronic filing requirements, please visit <http://www.fcc.gov/encyclopedia/economically-burdensome-exemption-closed-captioning-requirements>. Your new petition must provide the FCC with up-to-date and complete information and must contain all of the information, materials, or documents necessary to support your request. Your new petition may not incorporate by reference any information, materials, or documents that you have previously submitted to the FCC.

If you have questions pertaining to this letter or to the filing of a petition for exemption, please contact the FCC's Disability Rights Office at captioningexemption@fcc.gov.
